Art in the Garden Gala

Volume 1, Issue 2, Spring 2013

The Third Annual Art in the Garden Gala
Thursday, June 20, 2013
5pm-8pm
at the home of Daryl and Pat Vann.
210 Wilderness Road
Glasgow, KY

Art will be received at the Vann home between 10 am-12pm on June 20.

Each Artist may submit 5 Pieces of art.

Be sure the art is tagged on the back of each piece.

In order to prepare a printed list of art for sale, send a list of your art to Ann Stewart no later the Thursday, June 6. The list can be sent by e-mail to annstewart@glasgow-ky.com, dropped off at the Chamber of commerce, or faxed to 270-651-3122.

Your list must contain the following information about your art:

1. Name of Art
2. Medium
3. Artist Name
4. Price
5. Dimensions, if applicable

Easels are needed. Be sure to mark them with your name to ensure their return.

Since this event is the Guild's official fundraiser, members are asked to purchase a ticket. Each guild member is challenged to sell at least ten tickets. Tickets are $15 each and available from Betty Brogan (646-8668 or 678-5636)

or Ann Stewart (579-1737 or 651-3161)

Congratulations to Betty Brogan for receiving the "Special Purchase Award" for her painting entitled "Sunflowers II" at the 23rd anniversary of the Women in the Arts Exhibit held at the Medical Center in Bowling Green, KY. The purpose of the exhibit is to recognize and honor the work of area women artists in numerous categories. In the 2013 exhibit there were 59 artists, entering 110 pieces of work. Melody Shipley, art instructor at Austin Peay University, Clarksville, TN was the juror. Betty is shown with Doris Thomas, as she accepts the award.

Arts Guild Website Under Construction

Scott Biggers with NetGain Services has been hired to create a website for the Arts Guild of the Barrens, Inc. The website will provide information about our Guild, event announcements, member information, sponsors, membership application plus more. There will be a listing of current Guild members on the site and the members' names can be hyperlinked to an artist's personal website. If you do not have a personal website and would like to have one, Scott can create one for you for an estimated cost of $35-$40 and it can be hosted on the Guild website at no additional cost to you. Check out the progress at www.artsguildofthebarrens.org

Contact Scott directly if you are interested:

Recent Happenings

Glasgow Mayor Rhonda Trautman spoke at a recent Guild meeting about the value of art to a community.

Marty Hagedorn, a long-time Guild member, receives best wishes & a gift from the Guild at the February meeting. Marty is moving to Missouri to be near her daughter. We will miss Marty's pleasant personality and creative talents.

Farmers Market comes to life!! The Bounty of the Barrens Farmers Market will take place on the west side of the Square in downtown Glasgow every Saturday from 8am until noon unless notified otherwise. The Arts Guild chose to participate once again and artists can sell fine art under the Arts Guild tent. Please call Sally Puntel at 270-646-3243 to reserve a date by calling her at 270-646-3243. To make setup easier this year, the tent will be set up by the Sustainable Group before 8am. Guild members are no longer responsible for setting the tent up or taking it down at the close of market. If you reserve the space, but cannot attend, you must let Sally know before the Market on Saturday. You may bring your own table(s) and chair(s) or use the Guild's tables that will be available in the Chamber foyer. The tables must be returned to the Chamber foyer. There is a $10 charge to display art at the Market that is paid to the Arts Guild of the Barrens. Send payment to Pam Jewell, Treasurer, at PO Box 1285, Glasgow, KY 42142-1285.

Nadine Wilkerson's Painting chosen for Governor's Derby Exhibit

Nadine Wilkerson's watercolor painting entitled "Peek-A-Boo Fawn III" was chosen for the 2013 Governor's Derby Exhibit. The Exhibit will be on display in the Capitol Rotunda through May 6. This year, the Derby Exhibit received 163 submissions from 92 artists and only a fraction was selected for inclusion.

Art Displayed at Library

The Arts Guild of the Barrens is partnering with the Mary Wood Weldon Memorial Library to display art by members of the Guild for the community to enjoy. The Guild thanks Lynn Andrew and her staff for working with us to make it happen. We encourage you to stop by and view the art. The art is for sale and tags are provided with contact information for each artist on display. The Guild anticipates changing the art in July.
